

Exhibitales!

Storytelling sessions at museums and libraries

Stories, puppets, artefacts, crafts and fun for the whole family.

Join us for a fun, free storytelling session

Dudley museums service is running weekly storytelling sessions at museums and borough libraries for pre-schoolers and their families.

Each session can host up to ten children and their parents or carers. Stories are influenced by location and tie into at least one museum exhibition. They are delivered by a professional storyteller who brings props, puppets and replica artefacts. Children can handle the material, take part in re-enacting the stories and join in a craft activity.

Broadfield House Glass Museum, Kingswinford

Thursdays 1.30pm to 2.15pm

01384 812745

Brierley Hill library

Fridays 10.45am - 11.30am

01384 812865

Dudley Museum and Art Gallery

Fridays 1.30pm to 2.15pm

01384 815575

Advance booking is needed. Groups of children including childcare groups are welcome. To book call the venue direct. Suitable for ages two to four.

For more information on rattle and rhyme at libraries visit www.dudley.gov.uk/libraries

www.dudley.gov.uk/museums